VOLUME 88 – August 2010

President's Letter

This is August and based on a short email survey, there will be more than 5 people planning to attend this month's meeting, so there will be a meeting. Yeah!

We need to make some plans for what we want to do this fall as a guild, so come with ideas and your thinking caps on.

Can't wait to see you all. I have missed my guild friends.

August Food Menu -- Liz Tarr

The food theme for the month is ...food on a stick or other state fair food. Think mini barbeque wienies on a stick, fruit kabobs, carmel apples, fondue? etc etc. Here is a link to a utube video of 59 foods on a stick that are offered at the state fair.

Be creative you can put anything on a stick!

Preemie Quilts

-- Gwen Lundgren

As attendance was a bit low in July, there are lots of kits leftover to make whenever you have time. Look on top of the cabinets at the church for three white boxes. No deadline, just bring them when you finish. They need to be stitched around the edge and machine quilted or tacked by machine
