President's Letter

Hello Fellow Quilt Dreamers!

Happy September. It's been a great vacation summer for me, but I'm glad to get back to the business of quilting. I'd like to thank everyone who took over opening the room and running the meetings while I was gone. I'm also looking forward to that crisp fall air, and getting back to some quiet quilting of my own. There always seems so much to do in the summer. While I enjoy it, I do like the coziness of my favorite hobby during the cold months ahead.

This month's meeting will be a regular meeting in most respects. Cindy will be taking a bit of time to talk to us about cancer hats, and we need to decide about going to the quilt show. I believe the one in Faribault is the winner for the field trip; we can work out the details at this meeting.

Well, I'm off to work (daycare not quilting, sadly) but I'll be looking forward to seeing you all on September 20th.

Until then, Happy Quilting!

Gail

Next month's meeting: Saturday, October 18th at the church

Newsletter deadline: Thursday, October 9th

September Birthdays

Our only birthday gal this month is Evelyn Nall (9/17). Happy Birthday and Many Happy Returns of the Day!

Food for the September Meeting – Liz Tarr

It's a finger food month. Think about foods you can eat with your fingers: bread, bars, cookies, pickles, egg rolls, deviled eggs, sandwiches, pizza, hamburgers, hot dogs/brats, etc. etc. We will not hold you to eating all items with your fingers though.

Special Projects – Marion Draeger

Just a reminder about the project in November: start thinking 2½-inch strips. More details next month. I will not be at the meeting this month. I have a church retreat - so sorry.

Chemo Caps – Cindy Wilson

At the September meeting, I'll have a little station set up to demonstrate how to construct the basic chemo cap. I'll also have kits put together for the basic chemo cap (fabric, string, a needle, and a pattern), with "ingredients" for a few caps in each bag.

In addition, I'll demonstrate two alternate patterns, that make different types of chemo caps. Each of the 3 styles are fun to do, but create different cap-types.

I'm hoping to take a bazillion chemo caps to the American Cancer Society a few months from now (this will also free up some space in my dining room!)

See you at the meeting!

2009 Quilt Dreamer's 16th Annual Bag Lady Quilt Show – Carol Jacobson

Thank you to everyone for volunteering to chair a committee for next year's show. Below is the 2009 Show Committee. If you would like to help with any of these committees, please contact the person listed below. Also since this is the 16th year, I was thinking of having a theme of "Sweet 16". I'm not sure what that means as far as the silent auction but we will let Marion and Pat provide those details to you.
